Clean-Up Week Next Week

Residents Should Assist In Making Didsbury Cleanest Town In Province.

There are three kinds of people in the world — the "Wills", the "Wont's" and the "Can't's". The first accomplish everything, the second oppose everything and the third fail in everything. It is the first named class of citizens we expect will assist the efforts of the town in cutting the fire loss to a minimum. Our home is what we make it. Our town is a reflection of our homes, then why not make our town the banner town of the Province and our Province the banner Province of the Dominion.

Let us get those fire breeders and germ breeders out of our homes and yards. They belong on the dump-heap, but will never get there unless we Start Something and Finish what we start. Observe Clean-up Week from April 17th to 22nd by a general cleaning up and removal of rubbish, trash and waste from our premises.

Residents sometimes lose civic pride, but a stranger will at ways judge a town and its citizens by what he sees.

Cleanliness from a safety standpoint consists not only in maintaining sanitary conditions for the avoidance of contamination and disease in house or factory, but it involves keeping careful watch that no rubbish waste or inflammable matter is allowed to accumulate in out-of-the-way corners, and it is to this end your assistance is asked next week to make a thorough clean-up of the waste and bad accumulations of the winter.

Heavy Snow And Wind Storm Strikes District

March was an exceedingly mild month but April so far has been like a March month. Snowflurries with cold damp winds have been the order of the day. But Tuesday night was the worst yet. About nine o'clock the wind came up and a little snow started to fall and this kept up all night until this morning (Wednesday) drifts three and four feet high are in evidence and locomotion is extremely difficult. Fortunately the temperature is fairly high so no suffering is being caused by the storm.

It is unfortunate that the weather conditions will spoil the Easter holidays for a great many people, but cheer up the ground is in fine shape to receive the resultant moisture.

AROUND THE TOWN

The many friends of Mr. Alf. Studer will be glad to learn that he returned from a Calgary hospital on Monday much improved in health.

Mrs. S. R. Wood who has been a resident of Didsbury for nearly twenty years left this week with her two young sons to make her home with her son Pete near Castor, Alta.

Don't neglect your eyes! Glasses before it is too late. See M. Mecklenburg, the eye specialist at the Rosbud Hotel on Monday, April 17th and Olds April 18th.

Friday being a Dominion holiday all stores, banks and other business places will be closed. The post office will be open for a short time for the delivery of mail after the arrival of trains.

H. E. White, District Director of Lands and Loans of the soldier's Settlement Board was a business visitor in town on Saturday.

The matron of the hospital wishes to acknowledge the following donations: Mrs. W. Dick butter and eggs; Mrs. Duncan fowl and magazines; Mrs. Pearson, pork; Mrs. French, 1 pr. pillows for Nurses' Home; Mr. Durrer, wardrobe for Nurses' Home.

Amendment To Dominion Elections Act Affecting The Franchise Of Women

Ottawa. The first private member's motion of the session was carried without division by the House and will entail an amendment to the Dominion Elections Act, affecting the franchise of women. The main amendment to the franchise of women, introduced by the government, was introduced by Mr. J. A. Macphail, a Canadian, was particularly at issue. Under a subsection of the act as it stands, such a woman unless born on the continent of North America must obtain a certificate from a judge before she is entitled to vote.

W. D. Fisher (Liberal, North West), led the discussion. As he has done in previous sessions, Mr. Fisher sought an expression of opinion from the House that the subsection should be struck from the act. He claimed that it had disfranchised thousands, it placed the woman in France or Belgium in a position inferior to that of the Mexican or American, educated or uneducated, black or white. The subsection, it was emphasized by Conservatives, was directed against women from Germany and Austria, although Hon. Hugh Guthrie, former solicitor-general, who piloted the act through the House, admitted that the reasons for the clause which existed two or three years ago were not as strong today. Miss Agnes Macphail entered the discussion. She held that women wanted equal rights under the franchise. Her remarks, to the amusement of the House, generated a reply from ex-Mayor T. L. Church, of Toronto, who informed Miss Macphail that she did not represent "all the women in this country."

Premier King indicated his approval of the resolution and announced that if it received the approval of the House, the Government would give effect to it by an amendment to the Dominion Elections Act. After nearly three hours' discussion, the House gave its approval. The next step will be the submission of the Government amending bill.

Allied Supreme Council Expected To Meet Again In The Near Future

Paris.—The Allied Supreme Council is likely to meet again in the near future, it is believed here, as a result of the German chancellor's refusal of conditions attached by the reparations commission to the non-payment of reparations on Germany on her reparations payments.

The Chancellor's reply will come before the reparations commission first, but that body, lacking the power to take any coercive measures, will again refer the question to the Allies. Two many complications are involved, it is believed, to permit of an agreement on a plan of action being reached through the Allied diplomatic representatives, and it is thought in the best informed Allied circles that Premier Poincaré, therefore, will probably be obliged to consent to a meeting of the supreme council. An exchange of views will take place preparatory to this meeting, which may precede the general Geneva conference.

The French official opinion is that Chancellor Wirth has been obliged to switch his position as did Dr. Simons before him, in order to maintain his majority, and that he has become thoroughly committed to resistance to the Allies.

To Represent Canada at Rome

W. A. Wilson, of Regina, Will Attend Meeting of World Agriculturists
Regina, Sask., W. A. Wilson, general manager of the Saskatchewan Cooperative Creameries, has been appointed one of two delegates to represent Canada at the forthcoming conference of world agriculturists to be held in Rome, Italy.

The appointment of the two delegates is made by the Dominion government, and Mr. Wilson has just received advice of his appointment. He will leave here about April 12 en route to the sunny south, to take part in this most important conference.

One of the most important questions likely to be discussed at this session of the conference will be the advisability of organizing a wheat pool which will be able to exercise some kind of control on the prices of the world markets.

Mr. Wilson was formerly dairy commissioner for the Government of Saskatchewan.

Basilica of St. Anne Destroyed by Fire

Short Circuit in Electric Wiring Said to be Cause

Quebec.—As a result of the fire which broke out at St. Anne de Beauce only the front corner of the majestic cathedral which marked the site of the famous shrine, where pilgrims have worshipped for more than three centuries, are left standing. While the monastery and the village are also a mass of desolate debris. The monetary loss involved is estimated at $1,200,000, while the insurance carried will probably reach the sum of $500,000.

Although no definite plans have yet been announced by the Reconstruction Pattern, it was stated that no more possible work will be started to rebuild the venerable pile and it was said that it would be constructed on a larger and even more imposing scale than the building which has just been destroyed. The cause of the fire is attributed to a short circuit in the electric wiring.

The losses won't by the Life Guards of the British army cost $40 a pair.

Research Work to Counteract Grasshoppers

Looking for Diminution of this Menace in the West

Ottawa.—A diminution of the grasshopper menace in the western provinces during the coming crop season is looked for by the Dominion Department of Agriculture, according to answers given to a question in the House by O. R. Gould (Assiniboia).

Hon. W. R. Motherwell stated that in Manitoba from evidence at hand it was anticipated that grasshoppers would be less in evidence than they were during 1921. In Saskatchewan a further outbreak was expected, but the chief outbreak apparently would be in Alberta in which provinces there was a heavy egg deposition in 1921, which, it was expected, would result in an important invasion of hoppers in 1922, particularly in the sections immediately north of the main line of the Canadian Northern Railway.

It was the intention of the Government to continue research work with a view to finding means to counteract the damage caused by the grasshoppers, wheat stem saw fly, rust and cut worm.

Further experiments with chlorine gas as an insect destroyer would not be made, as previous experiments with this gas indicated that the remedy was too expensive, Mr. Motherwell added.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12th.

The auto season is again with us and the usual dangers to life and limb are becoming more apparent every day. The danger is more pronounced for autoists than it is for pedestrians in a great many instances.

It is reported that drivers are getting very careless in turning the corners in town, especially the corners at the conjunction of Osler St. and Railway Ave. If everybody would remember the rule of the road regarding autos there would not be so great a danger of bad collisions and perhaps a consequent loss of life for which the persons responsible could never forgive themselves. No matter where you are turning always keep to the right and then the other fellow knows what you are going to do as well as yourself.

Crookedness never pays in the long run. Look at the cork-screw.

Didsbury Hospital Board Make New Ruling

Owing to the very unsatisfactory way in which accounts have been paid to the General Hospital in the past the Board has resolved to make a rule to the effect that all patients entering the Hospital pay "one week in advance" and that responsible parties sign some form of promissory note in order that systematic payment be made until the full amount of account be cleared.

It is the sincere wish of the Board that all who recognize the function of a Hospital within the immediate bounds of the community co-operate with them to make this local institution of successful service to the town and neighbourhood.

Milk Industry in U.S.

If it isn't that already, the U. S. can be the world's milkman if it wants to.

Listen! Evaporated milk and butter and cheese from America now go to almost every country on the globe, including the Congo country in Africa. And American condensed milk is almost a world staple.

A large part of the dairy products of Minnesota are now regularly shipped to Peru, Brazil, Bolivia and other parts of South America as well as to New Foundland, the Cape of Good Hope, Hong Kong and the Philippine Islands.

Considerably more than 3 billion dollars worth of milk are produced in a single year in the United States. Its 22,768,000 cows yield 81 billion pounds of milk—a milk ocean that extends around the world and could float its entire shipping.

For the moment the depreciated value of foreign money has upset our European trade in milk products. But in our big business of supplying the world with canned milk, butter and cheese we have only scratched the surface as yet. American dairymen can easily make this the greatest business in the world, exceeding in value the product of Standard Oil and the Steel Trust combined. They have every natural advantage to assist them in what is the world's greatest feed and alfalfa producing country. The great thing about this business is that while it makes everyone connected with it prosperous, it compensates for the depletion of natural resources by building up instead of wasting and destroying, something we believe, that can truly be said of no other industry.

An Appreciation of The Late Miss Ida Etsell

The Rugby district learned with profound regret of the death of Miss Ida Etsell, after a short and painful illness.

Miss Etsell has for years been an active worker in the district, especially in the Cheer-Up-Club, in which she held the office of Sec.-Treas. It is due largely to Miss Etsell's untiring efforts that the Club has made such progress. Her bright and cheerful manner had a decided influence with the young people, and the loss of such a gallant worker will be felt very deeply by all who knew her. To the family we extend our heartfelt condolences.

The Farmer And New Mortgage Legislation

Attorney-General Brownlee Explains New Legislation Regarding Mortgages.

Contrary to an erroneous impression which has become prevalent in the province concerning the amendments just passed to the land titles act affecting mortgages, these amendments do not give any unusual rights to mortgage companies or other mortgagees as against mortgagors. In fact, the amendments make no change in the situation as between a mortgagee and a mortgagor, but simply define the prior right of a mortgagee over other creditors.

Hon. J. E. Brownlee, attorney-general has issued the following statement in this connection. He states that this legislation is part of his program to assist the farmer to carry on at present, and that he has the assurance of the mortgage and loan companies that they will stand by the government in this effort.

"My attention has been called to the effect of the legislation recently passed by way of amendments to the Land Titles Act affecting mortgages. The impression seems to be that the effect of these amendments is to give Mortgage Companies rights which they have never heretofore had. This is entirely erroneous. Until the case of Hyde vs. Chapin heard by the Appellate Court of Alberta on January 20th, 1916, it was accepted by everyone that the attornment clause in our mortgages had the same effect as under the English mortgages and Mortgage Companies frequently exercised their powers under the attornment clause without question either from the mortgagor or other creditors. In the case of Hyde vs. Chapin however, a conflict arose between a mortgagee and the execution creditor as to which was entitled to the proceeds of a certain crop and the Court held for our Torrens System of Title a mortgage did not acquire the same legal estate as under the real property laws enforced in England and the older provinces. This decision did not affect the relationship between the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee but did allow other creditors to acquire superior right to the crops grown on mortgaged lands to those of the mortgagee. The following clause is taken from the judgement of the Appeal Court, "No doubt the clause is valid as creating contractual rights between the parties and the mortgagee by virtue of the license given him may sustain if there is no legal impediment in his way." This clearly indicates that where any creditor intervenes the mortgagee may enforce the attornment clause as against the mortgagor.

As soon as this decision became public the Province of Saskatchewan enacted the same legislation as was passed at the recent Session. The whole purpose of this legislation is to protect the mortgagee as against other creditors and in enacting the legislation the whole desire was to protect the owner of the land so that he would no longer be in the position that however willing and anxious he may be to pay his interest and protect his land against foreclosure, if he had other creditors they might by obtaining judgement and seizing the crop, prevent any payment being made to the Mortgage Company with the result that the Company had no other course open but foreclosure. It is expected that the effect of this legislation will be to greatly reduce the number of foreclosures in the Province. It is expected that the effect of this legislation will be to greatly reduce the number of foreclosures in the Province.

Testimony to the improved conditions which these amendments will create with respect to farmers and their relations with loan companies is given in one letter which Mr. Brownlee has received from a prominent Calgary law firm, in which the writer says "The step you have taken in putting through the amendments will have done much to re-establish confidence. Personally, I believe it will stop all foreclosures save in cases where the lands have been abandoned. The mortgage companies have never desired to put a farmer off his land but the law as previously existing gave loan companies no alternative when steps had to be taken for their protection. This new legislation helps both the farmer and loan company. It will enable the farmer to protect his farm and will not leave him helpless and at the mercy of other creditors, and with the assurance of a fair rental, the loaning companies will have every inducement to carry the mortgage over bad times.

Old Timers Will Remember The Doctor

On Monday morning, March 6th, occurred the death of R. C. J. Stevens, M. D., at the Plumstead Infirmary, London Eng., where he had been superintendent for the past two years. On the morning of March 6th, the Doctor was found dead in his bath. At the inquest which followed, it was found that death was due to heart failure. The funeral took place from the Plumstead Infirmary and the remains were laid to rest in the Plumstead Cemetery.

Deceased was a resident of Olds for a number of years. Here he won for himself a splendid reputation as a physician, and was generally acknowledged by the medical profession in Alberta to be a doctor of very superior ability.

Shortly after the war broke out, the doctor answered the call and went overseas, serving in France for three years. At the close of the war he became assistant superintendent in the Plumstead Infirmary, London, which position he held until two years ago, when he was appointed superintendent.

Dr. Stevens leaves a wife, two sons and one daughter to mourn his loss.

The doctor had many friends in Olds and district, who will be deeply grieved to learn of his death.—Olds Gazette.
